

OSWEGO BOOKMOBILE

- Children select FREE books at their own independent reading level with the assistance of professional literacy specialists.
- Children visit the Bookmobile at any of 16 neighborhood stops during the seven week summer program.
- Oswego Bookmobile also appears at the Madeline Festival, Oswego Farmers Market, Harborfest Children's Park, OCFCU Movies In The Park, and Lions Club Craft Show.
- Under the direction of professional staff, volunteers spend an average of 364 hours preparing for and delivering, our seven week summer program.

DRIVING BOOKS HOME

OUR MISSION

Empowering children to be readers!

- Every child in our community will have access to books at his or her independent reading level.
- Every child in our community will have the opportunity to own books.
- All programs and materials are free.
- Oswego Bookmobile is open to all children in our community but specifically targets our at-risk population.
- Oswego Bookmobile provides opportunities for children to engage in literacy activities during summer months. Engaging in literacy activities over the summer helps decrease summer reading regression.
- Oswego Bookmobile is a free mobile literacy program for children through grade 12.
- Each time children visit Oswego Bookmobile, they select a free book and a snack.
- In cooperation with OCS D, Oswego Bookmobile staff tracks key information to document both quantitative and qualitative outcomes.

Oswego Bookmobile is a 501c3 nonprofit corporation, managed by a volunteer Board of Directors, funded through grants, donations, and in kind services.

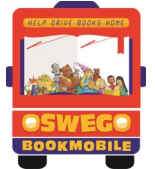

Oswego Bookmobile partners with Oswego City School District, SUNY Oswego, and Oswego Public Library, to provide a free, mobile, summer reading program to children in Oswego.

The Board of Directors welcomes discussion of partnership opportunities that are intended to increase the long term sustainability of the organization and reinforce its mission.
